

I believe that the State of Wisconsin has the right to establish a law that restricts telemarketing. I do not believe that a federal agency has the legal right to alter Wisconsin's telemarketing law. I have freely chosen to put my personal telephone numbers on our state no-call list - primarily because it is more restrictive than the federal no-call list. I do not believe that the FCC has the right to control my telephone.